4. How is your Personal Information collected?

We may collect Personal Information from and about you through the following:

- Direct interactions where you may give us your Personal Information by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. This includes Personal Information you provide when you:
  - visit our websites,
  - create an account and subscribe to access our client portals;
  - subscribe to our publications;
  - request for information and other materials to be sent to you;
  - speak to someone within Lavaretus to make a request or
  - speak to someone within Lavaretus about one of our products or services or a services of a third party that we feel you might benefit from;
  - enter a competition, promotion or survey;
  - request for us to book you onto seminars, workshops and conferences and to make travel and accommodation arrangements;
  - attend a Lavaretus event or participate in any Lavaretus activities; and
  - give us some feedback.
- Automated technologies or interactions where we may automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns as you interact with our websites or when you use one of our client portals. We collect this Personal Information by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. We may also receive Technical Data about you if you visit other websites employing our cookies. Please see our cookie policy on our website for further details.
- Third parties or publicly available sources which may include the receipt of Contact Details and marketing preferences from marketing or mailing list data providers, Technical Data from analytics providers such as Google based in or outside of the EU and/or the UK and from publicly available sources such as Companies House.

5. Who do we share your Personal Information with?

We work with many third parties to help administer, maintain and provide our websites and client portals, facilitate our marketing strategies, campaigns, competition and surveys as well as to book travel and accommodation. These third parties may from time to time need to have access to your Personal Information and may include:

- service providers such as those who help manage our IT and back office systems and processes, those who help maintain and manage our website, those that assist us in the provision of travel and accommodation services and those that collect and maintain telephone call recordings and CCTV images.
- Brokers, insurers, reinsurers and Third Party Administrators who work with us to help manage the underwriting process and administer our policies;
- Specific third parties whose details can be made available upon request.
- our regulators which may include the Information Commissioner's Office, the Financial Conduct Authority, national Supervisory Authorities as well as other regulators and law enforcement agencies in the EU and around the world
- organisations working to prevent fraud in financial services

Lavaretus is a subsidiary of the JLT Group and accordingly, from time to time, we may need to share your personal data with members of the JLT Group who may seek to provide you with information and materials about their products and services and who provide general back office and administration support and services.

We may also be under legal or regulatory obligations to share your Personal Information with courts, regulators, law enforcement or in certain cases insurers. Also, if we were to sell part of our businesses we would need to transfer your Personal Information to the purchaser of such businesses.

6. International Transfers

From time to time we may need to share your Personal Information with JLT Group entities and third parties who may be located in the UK or outside of the EEA.

We will always take steps to ensure that any international transfer of information to the UK or outside of the EEA is carefully managed to protect your rights and interests:

- we will only transfer your Personal Information to countries which are recognised as providing an adequate level of legal protection;
- transfers within the JLT Group of companies will be covered by the Standard Contractual Clauses which gives specific contractual protections designed to ensure that you receive an adequate and consistent level of protection wherever it is transferred within the JLT Group, or
- transfers to service providers and other third parties will always be protected by contractual commitments and where appropriate further assurances, such as the Standard Contractual Clauses or the certification schemes - for example, the EU - U.S. Privacy Shield for the protection of Personal Information transferred to the US.

7. How long do we keep your Personal Information?

We will retain your Personal Information for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this Fair Processing Notice. In some circumstances we may retain your Personal Information for longer periods of time, for instance where we are required to do so in accordance with legal, regulatory, tax or accounting requirements.

In specific circumstances we may also retain your Personal Information for longer periods of time so that we have an accurate record of your dealings with us in the event of any complaints or challenges, or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation relating to your Personal Information or dealings.

Where your Personal Information is no longer required we will ensure it is either securely deleted or stored in a way which means it will no longer be used by the business.

8. What are your rights?

You have a number of rights in relation to your Personal Information.

You may request access to your data, correction of any mistakes in our files, erasure of records where no longer required, restriction on the Processing of your data, objection to the processing of your data, data portability and various information in relation to any Automated Decision Making and Profiling or the basis for international transfers. You may also exercise a right to complain to your Supervisory Authority. These are set out in more detail as follows:

RIGHT	WHAT THIS MEANS
Access	You can ask us to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>confirm whether we are processing your Personal Information;</li> <li>give you a copy of Personal Information;</li> <li>provide you with other information about your Personal Information such as what data we have, what we use it for, who we disclose it to, whether we transfer it abroad and how we protect it, how long we keep it for, what rights you have, how you can make a complaint, where we got your data from and whether we have carried out any Automated Decision Making or Profiling, to the extent that information has not already been provided to you in this Fair Processing Notice.</li> </ul>
Rectification	You can ask us to rectify inaccurate Personal Information. We may seek to verify the accuracy of the data before rectifying it.
Erasure	You can ask us to erase your Personal Information, but only where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was collected; or</li> <li>you have withdrawn your consent (where the data processing was based on consent); or</li> <li>following a successful right to object (see 'Objection' below); or</li> <li>it has been processed unlawfully; or</li> <li>to comply with a legal obligation to which we are subject.</li> </ul> We are not required to comply with your request to erase your Personal Information if the processing of your Personal Information is necessary: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>for compliance with a legal obligation; or</li> <li>for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.</li> </ul> There are certain other circumstances in which we are not required to comply with your erasure request, although these two are the most likely circumstances where we would deny that request.
Restriction	You can ask us to restrict (i.e. keep but not use) your Personal Information, but only where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>its accuracy is contested (see Rectification), to allow us to verify its accuracy; or</li> <li>the processing is unlawful, but you do not want it erased; or</li> <li>it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was collected, but we still need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or</li> <li>you have exercised the right to object, and verification of overriding grounds is pending.</li> </ul> We can continue to use your Personal Information following a request for restriction, where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we have your consent (for example to process a claim); or</li> <li>to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or</li> <li>to protect the rights of another natural or legal person; or</li> <li>to comply with a legal obligations to which we are subject.</li> </ul>
Portability	You can ask us to provide your Personal Information to you in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format, or you can ask to have it 'ported' directly to another Data Controller, but in each case only where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>the processing is based on your consent or the performance of a contract with you; and</li> <li>the processing is carried out by automated means.</li> </ul>

Objection	You can object to any processing of your Personal Information which has our 'legitimate interests' as its legal basis (see Section 3) if you believe your fundamental rights and freedoms outweigh our legitimate interests. Once you have objected, we have an opportunity to demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate interests which override your rights and freedoms.
International Transfers	You can ask to obtain a copy of, or reference to, the safeguards under which your Personal Information is transferred to another jurisdiction. We may redact data transfer agreements or related documents (i.e. obscure certain information contained within these documents) for reasons of commercial sensitivity.
Supervisory Authority	You have a right to lodge a complaint with your local Supervisory Authority about our processing of your Personal Information . We do ask that you please attempt to resolve any issues with us first, although you have a right to contact your Supervisory Authority at any time.

To exercise your rights you may contact us as set out in Section 9. Please note the following if you do wish to exercise these rights:

- Identity. We take the confidentiality of all records containing Personal Information seriously, and reserve the right to ask you for proof of your identity if you make a request.
- Fees. We will not ask for a fee to exercise any of your rights in relation to your Personal Information, unless your request for access to information is unfounded, repetitive or excessive, in which case we will charge a reasonable amount in the circumstances. We will let you know of any charges before completing your request.
- Timescales. We aim to respond to any valid requests within one month unless it is particularly complicated or you have made several requests, in which case we aim to respond within three months. We will let you know if we are going to take longer than one month. We might ask you if you can help by telling us what exactly you want to receive or are concerned about. This will help us to action your request more quickly.
- Exemptions. Local laws provide for additional exemptions, in particular to the right of access, whereby Personal Information can be withheld from you in certain circumstances, for example where it is subject to legal privilege.
- Third Party Rights. We do not have to comply with a request where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of other data subjects.

9. Contact and complaints

The primary point of contact for all issues arising from this Notice, including requests to exercise data subject rights, is our Data Protection Officer – click here for our Data Protection Officer’s contact details.

If you have a complaint or concern about how we use your Personal Information, please contact us in the first instance and we will attempt to resolve the issue as soon as possible. You also have a right to lodge a complaint with your national data protection supervisory authority at any time.
